

COOCVE President's Report

By DONNA CAPOBIANCO, President of COOCVE

Thank you to all COOCVE board members that voted for the proposed re-stated documents. Your support is greatly appreciated. Our village changes and evolves. COOCVE must do the same. Together we are giving our volunteer business a better chance to survive in today's environment.

Another change we are excited about is our updated website coming to you soon. We wish to provide more helpful information at your fingertips. Visit COOCVE.com often and keep a watch.

The screenshot displays the COOCVE website interface. At the top left is the COOCVE logo, a hexagon with 'OWNERS' at the top, 'CENTURY VILLAGE' on the sides, and 'COOCVE INCORPORATED 1970' at the bottom. To the right of the logo is a blue button that says 'Click Here to Stay CVE Informed. Subscribe to Important Email Lists!'. Below this is a search bar with the word 'Search' and a magnifying glass icon. In the center, there are four starburst icons labeled 'CIAC', 'CenClub', 'Master Management', and 'Reporter'. Below these are five colored navigation buttons: 'Associations' (purple), 'News & Education' (green), 'COOCVE' (yellow), 'Meetings' (blue), and 'Products & Services' (orange). A light blue banner contains the text: 'Condominium Owners Organization of Century Village East (COOCVE) is a volunteer, 617, not-for-profit organization solely responsible for Education, Research, & Recommendations on issues intended to improve the overall quality of life in CVE. COOCVE owns no property and has no jurisdiction over any of CVE's 8,508 condominium owners and their respective 253 associations.' At the bottom, there is a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Associations', 'News & Education', 'COOCVE', 'Meetings', and 'Products & Services'. A second search bar is located at the very bottom.