PLEASE NOTE: In days before websites and email the CVE Reporter published COOCVE's proposed document amendments as a courtesy. This COOCVE requirement should have changed years ago and is changed in the proposed documents to be voted on soon as it is no longer necessary or cost effective to hard-copy print 16+ pages of documents in thousands of papers distributed by the Reporter. COOCVE has them published at no cost to anyone on COOCVE.com. They will also be attached to both the email NOTICE of the Oct. 15th BOARD MEETING and voting ballot COOCVE directors will receive early October. We welcome anyone without email or computer to call 954-596-0775 to set a time to visit the COOCVE office to read them.

2024 brought about MAJOR CHANGES in Florida Condominium Law

All board members of each and every condominium in Florida, those currently in office, whether appointed or elected, and those who will be voted in at your upcoming annual meeting, now have strict CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS.

Each of our CVE 253 condominiums are required to have at least 3 board members governing its association. OWNERS, your job is to ensure those you vote in meet the requirements and govern according to your documents and Florida condo law. Always remember, OWNERS vote board members in and can vote them out.

We encourage all 253 association board members and interested owners to go to COOCVE.com > Calendar for a list of some of the law firms and management companies that offer information and invitations to professional educational webinars. It is your responsibility to stay informed. COOCVE gives you ways to do so.
